'Kashi Marnanmukti' is a Philosophical novel based on the life of its protagonist, 'Maha', a Chandaal who touches the spiritual height of Buddha and of his spiritual journey in search of his Guru. The book draws its base from the doctrines of the Indian religious scriptures such as the Vedas and the Purans presenting it in a story narrative form, also bringing into light true meaning and importance of Guru in one's life.

All the proceeds from this book are utilized for social causes i.e. for mentally challenged children, poor children's education and marriage and for construction of an old age home by the Shiv Om Sai Trust.
