

‘The Mystic Faith- For a Drop of Nectar’ released in Delhi

New Delhi, October 22, 2013: Kumbh is a magical world of liberated and immeasurable traditions, beliefs, rituals, and faith matted with a myriad of hidden meanings. Shri Manoj Thakkar and Mr. Jayesh Rajpal, have brought one such celestial experience in their new book “The Mystic Faith- For a Drop Of Nectar”. The Book has been published under Om Shiv Sai Prakashan with all their support for the event.

The book was launched today at the India International Centre in the honourable presence of Mr. Digvijay Singh - Hon’ General Secretary, Congress and other eminent personalities such as Shriman Mahant Raghmuniji Maharjaj- Shri Panchayati Akhada, Bada Udasin, Bhramansheel(Jamaat), Mahamandleshwar Shri Kailashanand Bramachariji- Panch Agni Akhada Siddh Peeth Darshan, Kali Mandir, Haridwar, Mahamandleshwar Swami Shri Harichetnanandji- Harisewa Ashram, Haridwar, Acharya Dr. Vishnu Dutta Rakeshji, Ex. Director, Swami Shraddhanand Research & Publication Centre, Gurukul Kangdi University, Haridwar etc.

On this occasion, Mr. Digvijay Singh said. “It is really great to see people devoting their portion of important time for this cause. It will definitely add up more values and ethics to the society. He also added that this book will make a very noteworthy impact on the masses towards Kumbh but Religion on the whole. It is a great piece of work and it is essential to enrich the young and existing generation with such spiritual thoughts.

The book is an attempt by the authors to interpret the hidden meanings and have tried to illustrate their experience in a pictorial form- a compilation of the most beautiful pictures from the Kumbh 2013.

Head of Kali Peeth Shri Kailashanandji opined that to write about the festival of Maha Kumbh as in this kind of epic form can only be done by the person who has the grace of Almighty and blessings of great Saints & our lives are graced being the part of this ceremony.

Mahant Raghuni Maharajji said, “Kumbh signifies Indian tradition and Manoj Thakkar ji penned Kumbh as equivalent to a “GRANTH”. He emphasized that such a book which is parallel to a Granth is a once in a life time creation. He also added that this book will make a very noteworthy impact on the masses towards Kumbh but Religion on the whole.

Shri Manoj Thakkar, expressing his euphoria commented, “Our new book, lends an enchanting overview of the many aspects of the festival of Kumbh, the astrological, mythological, philosophical aspect, and endeavours to our readers and the innumerable participants of the Kumbh and its many traditions and history.”

Mr. Jayesh Rajpal, adds “The portrayal of the spiritual, divine and heavenly experience at The Kumbh is impossible to pen down. However, we have tried to incorporate every bit our experiences and our journey to elucidate the reader’s minds.”

To,
The Editor,
.....
.....